Farmingville, NY - On June 18, the Brookhaven Town Board honored Longwood High School Senior Kayla Parmely for her well-timed aid of a senior citizen who collapsed during the school's Music and Art Festival in May. Kayla, a member of the Middle Island Fire Department, is certified in CPR and AED (Automated External Defibrillator) and has had extensive training for emergency situations. She used her training to restart the man's heart and save his life. At the Town Board meeting, Councilwoman Jane Bonner and Councilwoman Connie Kepert presented Kayla with a Certificate of Appreciation for her quick action and heroism.
