Supervisor Lesko and Town Board Honors Mrs. Annie Henry World War II Veteran and Gordon Heights Community Leader

posted on 7/27/2010 10:27:53 AM

Farmingville, NY - At the July 20 Town of Brookhaven Board Meeting, Annie Henry, a resident of Gordon Heights was honored with a proclamation in recognition for a lifetime of service to her country and community. Mrs. Henry was born in Talladega, Alabama and moved to Gordon Heights in 1946. She is a veteran of World War II who served in the Woman's Air Corps (WAC) and received the American Theatre Campaign Medal for Good Conduct. Mrs. Henry has been active in the Gordon Heights community for many years, including 31 years as the Secretary-Treasurer of the Gordon Heights Fire District as well as being an Aide to the Longwood PTA. She has also been involved in the Foster Grandparent program for the past 18 years. Supervisor Lesko said "We are grateful to Mrs. Henry for her many years of service to the residents of Brookhaven Town. She is a role model that we can all look up to for inspiration."

Pictured (left to right) - Councilman Steve Fiore-Rosenfeld, Town Clerk Patricia Eddington, Councilwoman and Deputy Supervisor Kathleen Walsh, Councilwoman Jane Bonner, Supervisor Mark Lesko, Annie Henry with her great grandson Vincent Mendoza, Councilwoman Connie Kepert, Councilman Tim Mazzei and Councilman Daniel Panico.

Division of Public Information * Office of the Supervisor
One Independence Hill • Farmingville • NY 11738 • Phone (631) 451-6595 • Fax (631) 451-6258