Farmingville, NY - On May 5, Supervisor Edward Romaine and Councilwoman Valerie M. Cartright attended the 2015 Senior Softball opening day ceremony for the 68 and over league. The Supervisor and Councilwoman addressed the teams and both had the honor of throwing out first pitches.The Town of Brookhaven Senior Softball program began in 1982 and consists of two leagues (60 and over and 68 and over). The league takes place during the spring and into the summer season. Both leagues play on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 10:00 AM.

Supervisor Romaine said, "It's always fun to join with the players on opening day because their enthusiasm for game is so inspiring. These are truly the 'boys of summer' and I wish them all a successful season."

"I had the privilege of throwing the first pitch at Percy Raynor Park on a beautiful morning," said Councilwoman Cartright. "I enjoyed watching the very talented players warm up and I wish them a fun and sunny season. I look forward to working with these teams and the Parks Department to make improvements to Raynor Park for the benefit and safety of Town residents."
