Farmingville, NY - On October 23, Supervisor Ed Romaine (left) and Councilwoman Valerie M. Cartright attended the ribbon cutting ceremony for the Pink Room at the Holiday Inn Express in Stony Brook. The hotel decorated the room, which is the first of its kind in New York State, with pink walls, furniture and artwork to raise money to fight breast cancer. Part of the proceeds from those staying in the room will be donated for breast cancer research. Pictured left to right are Supervisor Romaine, hotel owner John Tsunis and Councilwoman Cartright.
