Farmingville, NY - On June 7, Supervisor Ed Romaine (left) and Councilman Dan Panico (second from right) joined community leaders and Center Moriches Chamber of Commerce officials to celebrate the ribbon cutting ceremony of Main Street Screen Printing & Embroidery located in the heart of Main Street in Center Moriches.

"This new business will be an asset to the local community for many people looking to promote their business or sports team," Said Supervisor Romaine.

Councilman Panico said, "The idea of providing a local resource for local sports teams and those in need of customized apparel is a great one. This new small business is a welcomed addition to the newly revitalized downtown Center Moriches. People and businesses like this are what make our area so nice to live in and I wish them the very best."
