Farmingville, NY – On May 29, Supervisor Ed Romaine (back row, left), Councilwoman Jane Bonner (front row, center) and Receiver of Taxes Lou Marcoccia (front row, left) were guests at the Mount Sinai Yacht Club's 51st annual Commissioning Ceremony and Commodore's Breakfast. Also is attendance is State Senator Ken Lavalle (back row, right). Traditionally, the yacht club invites elected officials and community leaders to participate in this time honored event which this year fell during Memorial Day weekend. At the breakfast, the Yacht Club was honored with a proclamation from the Town for all of the charitable work they do in the community. Every year the Yacht Club sponsors events in the community, such as the annual Cedar Beach Clean-up, the collection of food for a local soup kitchen, provides an annual scholarship for local college age students, and hosts the Mount Sinai Sailing Association Breast Cancer Regatta.

The Mount Sinai Yacht Club, which was incorporated in 1964, is located at Mount Sinai Harbor. It is near the Town of Brookhaven's Cedar Beach and Mt. Sinai Harbor Stewardship Center.
