Farmingville, NY – On December 4, Supervisor Ed Romaine and Councilwoman Valerie M. Cartright were on hand to enjoy the Ward Melville Heritage Organization's Annual Holiday Festival at Stony Brook Village Center and participate in the annual tree lighting ceremony. The festival included live music, the promenade of trees, bake sale, model train exhibit and the arrival of Santa Claus who led the enthusiastic crowd in a rendition of "Jingle Bells." Pictured at left are Supervisor Romaine, Ward Melville Heritage Organization President Gloria Roccio, Santa Claus, County Legislator Kara Hahn, Councilwoman Cartright and Cris Damianos.
