Farmingville, NY – Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico (right) and Councilman Michael Loguercio (left) recently paid special tribute to Nancy Curreri and Mary Ellen Fischer, long-time volunteers of Colonial Youth and Family Services, for their dedicated service to the organization and its many worthwhile causes over the last 20 years. Curreri has served as Past President and Treasurer of the Board of Directors, while Fischer has been Vice-president and Secretary. In addition to their work with Colonial Youth and Family Services, both women have been actively involved in a number of other groups, such as the Chamber of Commerce and Girl Scouts.
