Supervisor Romaine said, "The residents of Sound Beach have benefitted a great deal from the efforts of their civic association. I thank these volunteers, who dedicate their time and talent to making this community a better place to live."

"It has been a pleasure to work with the Sound Beach Civic Association for so many years," said Councilwoman Bonner. "They have made a big difference in the lives of the people who live in this community and I commend their leadership and members for their commitment to improve the quality of life of the residents of Sound Beach."

Highway Superintendent Losquadro said, "The men and women of the Sound Beach Civic Association have always shown a strong commitment to their hamlet. I have enjoyed working with this organization in the past to accomplish community goals and look forward to continue working with them to the benefit of all Sound Beach residents."

Sound Beach Civic Association President Bea Ruberto said, "I'm very proud to be part of an association that has accomplished so much. What we are today and what we hope to be tomorrow is the result of what came before and we thought it was important to acknowledge the contributions of our past presidents. In recent years, not much could have been done without the strong advocacy of our councilwoman, Jane Bonner, and we were honored to also acknowledge her commitment to this community."
