Farmingville, NY - On April 29, Supervisor Ed Romaine (left), Councilman Dan Panico (center) and Councilwoman Valerie Cartright (right) threw out the ceremonial first pitch at the Opening Day ceremonies for the 31st Annual Suffolk Senior's Softball League held at the Moriches Athletic Complex.

The Town's Senior Softball League runs from April through September and includes two programs. The "60 and Older" league plays Tuesdays and Thursdays at various Town parks and the "65 and Older" league plays Tuesdays and Thursdays at Percy B. Raynor Memorial Park in South Setauket. There is also a "60 and Older" fall league that plays from September to November at various Town Parks.
