Farmingville, NY – Brookhaven Supervisor Ed Romaine and Councilman Dan Panico recently attended the installation ceremonies for both the Mastic Beach (photo left) and East Moriches (photo right) Ambulance Companies, where they congratulated newly installed officers, while thanking outgoing officers for their dedicated commitment and selfless service to the communities they serve. Supervisor Romaine and Councilman Panico emphasized the many sacrifices that volunteer ambulance members make, taking time away from their families, to fulfill the many obligations associated with emergency service personnel.
