Farmingville, NY – Brookhaven Town Supervisor Ed Romaine and Councilman Dan Panico recently attended the Chamber of Commerce of the Moriches' annual St. Patrick's Day Parade Cocktail Party held at Rock Hill Country Club in Manorville. They were there to honor long-time Center Moriches resident Philomena Vigliotta for being named as the 2016 Grand Marshal of the Chamber's annual St. Patrick's Day Parade. Supervisor Romaine and Councilman Panico paid special tribute to Mrs. Vigliotta during the festivities by presenting her with an official Town of Brookhaven proclamation. Mrs. Vigliotta was born in Dublin, Ireland and moved to the Moriches area with her husband Ernest, where they raised their family of seven. A talented vocalist, Vigliotta was an active member of the Moriches Choral Society for more than 40 years and also served for many years as music director, cantor, organist and choir director for St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church in Center Moriches. She has also been a dedicated volunteer for many other organizations, including Camp-Pa-Qua-Tuck and the Cedar Lodge Nursing Home.
