Farmingville, NY – Supervisor Ed Romaine has announced that all Town of Brookhaven Boat Ramp fees will be waived starting on Friday, October 2. The action was taken to encourage residents to remove their boats from the water in preparation of hazardous weather conditions forecasted for this weekend and into next week.

Hurricane Joaquin is currently projected to move up the east coast this weekend with heavy rains and gusty winds forecasted for Long Island. Residents can go to the Town’s website at www.brookhaven.org for news and weather updates and to access the online Hurricane Survival Guide, which contains important phone numbers and information about how to stay safe. Residents should call 451-TOWN to report down trees, and call 911 for police, fire and ambulance emergencies. To report a power outage or downed wires, residents should call PSEG at 800-490-0075 or go to www.psegliny.com to file a report online.

The Town will also be sending out e-mail alerts to residents who have registered on our e-mail list. If you are not on the list, you can sign up today at www.brookhaven.org. Residents can also sign up for countywide Code Red alerts at www.suffolkcountyny.gov. They can also get alerts from New York State by enrolling at https://users.nyalert.gov/enroll.
