Farmingville, NY - On August 11, Councilwoman Connie Kepert attended St. Michael's Community Center's summer day camp program in Gordon Heights for children ages 5 to 13 years old. During the first part of the visit, the Councilwoman read a book entitled, "A Fish out of Water." She also spoke to the youngsters about the duties and responsibilities of a Councilperson in the Town of Brookhaven.

"It is always a great experience interacting with enthusiastic youngsters who are open and ready to learn," stated Councilwoman Kepert.
