Farmingville, NY - "The executive budget presented by Governor Cuomo for the next fiscal year follows the success of last year's budget. The Governor has again closed a billion dollar deficit and proposed important measures to protect New York tax dollars, all of this without the gimmicks of the old-Albany. The budget forms the foundation of how our government can be remade to better serve New Yorkers. With Governor Cuomo leading the way New York spends, we will continue to work hard to deliver real results to families and communities across the state."
