Supervisor Lesko and Deputy Supervisor/Councilwoman Kathleen Walsh Announces Town Seeking Nominations for Outstanding Volunteers
posted on 3/13/2012 12:02:33 PM

March 13, 2012

Honorees will be selected by the Brookhaven Youth Bureau and recognized for their volunteer work with young people on May 9, 2012

Farmingville, NY - Supervisor Mark Lesko has announced that the Town of Brookhaven's Youth Bureau and the Brookhaven Youth Board are seeking nominations for individuals and groups who deserve recognition for volunteer work with Brookhaven's young people. The honorees will be recognized at the Bureau's 32nd Annual Volunteer Awards Ceremony on Wednesday, May 9th at 7:00 p.m. at Brookhaven Town Hall (1 Independence Hill, Farmingville, NY).

"For over 30 years, the Youth Bureau has recognized hundreds of individuals and groups for their dedication to Brookhaven youth," said Supervisor Lesko, "This year's honorees will join a prestigious group of volunteers who have spent countless hours making a significant impact on the lives of so many young people."

"Volunteers work tirelessly with our youth throughout the year, without asking for anything in return. The Youth Bureau Volunteer Awards are a fitting way to recognize their community service and all they do for the young people of our Town," said Deputy Supervisor / Councilwoman Kathleen Walsh.

If you know someone who you believe should be recognized for his or her efforts, either individually or as a group, please call or write to the Youth Bureau for a nomination form. Nomination forms can also be downloaded at www.brookhaven.org in the "You Should Know" section. For more information, or to request a form by phone, call the Youth Bureau at 631-451-8011.

The Bureau expects a great response and all nominations will be date stamped. The deadline for submitting nominations is April 11, with no exceptions.