Farmingville, NY - On July 7, Brookhaven Town Councilwoman Connie Kepert attended the Children's Defense Fund Freedom School Summer Program. The program is held at Faith Baptist Church located at 10 Teller Avenue in Coram. The literacy-based program is geared toward children ranging from kindergarten through second grade. At the event, Councilwoman Kepert read a book to the children entitled Colors Don't Matter. After reading the story she gave the youngsters an opportunity to ask questions, and to her surprise, they all wanted to know the role of a Town Councilperson and how they too could become Town Board members in the future.

"It is always a joy to interact with children, especially all the children that attend Faith Baptist Church Freedom School. They are always interested and ready to learn," stated Councilwoman Kepert.
