Farmingville, NY - On April 16, Councilwoman Connie Kepert (back row, fourth from left and the Brookhaven Town Board honored Laura Cox, Gordon Heights Civic Garden Club President, Vice Chair Tracy Gibbs, Girl Scout Troop 544, Girl Scout Troop 1371, and several youth volunteers for their commitment and contribution to the community of Gordon Heights. The children spent many hours enhancing the triangle at Teller Avenue by planting a tree and decorating eggs and ribbons that were placed on the tree for the Easter holiday season.

"It is extremely important that young people get engaged within their communities, as they are the future of this Town," said Councilwoman Connie Kepert. "I would like to extend my a warm thank you to all those who participated in the beautification of the Gordon Heights Community"
