Farmingville, NY - On March 30, Deputy Supervisor Councilwoman Kathleen Walsh paid a visit to New Lane Elementary School in Selden to read to the fourth grade class of Ms. Babb and Mrs. Kalinowski to celebrate "Bed Time Story Day." Councilwoman Walsh read A Boy Named Boomer by Boomer Esiason to the class. The book features childhood memories from Esiason, who is a Long Island native and former NFL quarterback.

"It was a pleasure to read my favorite book to the class on 'Bed Time Story Day," said Councilwoman Kathleen Walsh. "I encourage all our residents to take the time to read to our children. It's a great way to spend time with them while encouraging the joy of reading."
