May 3, 2012

Councilwoman Kepert and Legislator Browning pose with the recipients of this year's certificates of recognition

Farmingville, NY - On Saturday, April 21, Councilwoman Connie Kepert attended the Brookhaven Fire Department's Annual Installation Dinner at Majestic Gardens in Rocky Point. The Councilwoman presented certificates to Patrick Perry for Rookie of the Year for 2010-2011, Anthony Nunziata for Fireman of the Year 2011 in recognition of his heroic actions, and John Klug in appreciation for his 20 years of service as the Department’s treasurer. In addition, she also presented certificates to Chief Thomas Connors and Captain Giuseppe Lo Iacono in acknowledgment of their outstanding performance, and finally a certificate to the family of the late Frank Martin in honor of his 50 years of service.

"It was an honor to attend this year's Brookhaven Fire Department Installation Dinner to recognize the hard work, dedication, and heroic actions of all the men and women who serve their community with pride," said Councilwoman Kepert.