Farmingville, NY - On May 9, the Town of Brookhaven hosted the 32nd Annual Youth Bureau Volunteer Awards Ceremony to honor those who have volunteered to work with and assist young people throughout the Town, whether they are individual adults, service groups, or young people themselves. Town officials in attendance at the event were Chief of Staff Brian Beedenbender (representing Supervisor Mark Lesko), Youth Bureau Assistant Director Donna Napoli, Receiver of Taxes Lou Marcoccia, and Julia Wilson of the Highway Department (representing Highway Superintendent John Rouse).

"For more than three decades, the Youth Bureau has recognized hundreds of individuals and groups for their tireless efforts to assist young people through the Town of Brookhaven," said Supervisor Lesko, "I congratulate this year's honorees on joining an esteemed group of honored volunteers who have made a significant impact and improved the quality of life for so many young people in our community over the years."

Receiver of Taxes Lou Marcoccia said, "I am honored to join with our Town in congratulating and thanking our service volunteers for all they do to strengthen the youth and families of Brookhaven. Our future is secure with the dedication of such individuals."

The Youth Bureau is responsible for planning and coordinating activities and services for young people up to 21 years of age. The division monitors and provides oversight for 20 youth agencies and programs that receive funding from the Town of Brookhaven.
