June 27, 2012

Farmingville, NY - The Route 25A - Mount Sinai to Wading River Draft Land Use Plan and the associated Draft Generic Environmental Impact Statement (DGEIS) were accepted by the Town Board at the June 26, 2012 Town Board meeting and are available for review and comment by the general public and public agencies.

Pursuant to the State Environmental Quality Review Act (SEQRA), Part 617 of the implementing regulations pertaining to Article 8 of the Environmental Conservation Law, the acceptance by the Board of the Draft Land Use Plan and DGEIS begins a 30-day public comment period, inclusive of a July 17, 2012 public hearing. Comments are requested and will be accepted until the close of business on July 27, 2012. Comments should be sent to the Town Clerk's Office.

The Draft LUP and DGEIS can be found on the Town’s website at: http://www.brookhaven.org/Departments/PlanningEnvironment/PlanningEnvironmentLandManagement.aspx

The documents are also available for viewing at the Comsewogue Public Library, the Port Jefferson Free Library, and the North Shore Public Library. Copies are also available for viewing at the Town Clerk's Office and the Town Planning Department at Town Hall, One Independence Hill, Farmingville.

Further information regarding the SEQRA process can be found at: http://www.dec.ny.gov/permits/357.html.
