Farmingville, NY - Patchogue Village Mayor Paul Pontieri, who was appointed in 2009 as Deputy Town Supervisor to advise and coordinate economic development by Supervisor Mark Lesko, is congratulated by Lesko, members of the LIHP and guests for being honored at the Long Island Housing Partnership's (LIHP) "Building Long Island's Future" luncheon on June 21. Supervisor Lesko introduced Mayor Pontieri at the event and recognized his dedication, leadership and contributions to recent economic development in Brookhaven Town and the Village of Patchogue. He also applauded the Mayor's use of "Smart Growth" principles to help revitalize business and initiate housing growth in the village.

The mission of the Long Island Housing Partnership is to provide increased housing opportunities throughout Long Island for those unable to afford decent and safe homes. They accomplish this mission through development, homebuyer education and technical assistance programs, and through leadership and public advocacy.

Pictured from left to right: Brookhaven Town Supervisor Mark Lesko, LIHP Executive Vice President Diana Weir, Patchogue Mayor Paul Pontieri, LIHP Vice President James Britz, LIHP President and CEO Peter Elkowitz, LIHP Chairman Peter Klein, HUD Regional Director for New York and New Jersey Adolfo Carrion.
Patchogue Village Mayor Paul Pontieri (left), who was appointed in 2009 as Deputy Town Supervisor to advise and coordinate economic development by Supervisor Mark Lesko (right), is congratulated by Lesko after being honored at the Long Island Housing Partnership’s (LIHP) "Building Long Island's Future" luncheon on June 21. Supervisor Lesko introduced Mayor Pontieri at the event and recognized his dedication, leadership and contributions to recent economic development in Brookhaven Town and the Village of Patchogue. He also applauded the Mayor's use of "Smart Growth" principles to help revitalize business and initiate housing growth in the village.

The mission of the Long Island Housing Partnership is to provide increased housing opportunities throughout Long Island for those unable to afford decent and safe homes. They accomplish this mission through development, homebuyer education and technical assistance programs, and through leadership and public advocacy.

Division of Public Information * Office of the Supervisor
One Independence Hill • Farmingville • NY 11738 • Phone (631) 451-6595 • Fax (631) 451-6258