Farmingville, NY - The Town of Brookhaven has announced that they will assist Suffolk County to remove abandoned vehicles from County roads. The Town will deploy whatever manpower and resources necessary to clear the roads and make them passable and safe. If anyone believes that their car has been moved from where they abandoned it, they should call 451-TOWN (8696). The Town asks that if your vehicle has been abandoned, you should make arrangements to have it safely removed as soon as possible. Stay tuned to local radio and TV news broadcasts for the most current weather news and emergency information.

Please go to the Town's website at www.brookhaven.org for up-to-date snowstorm related news, information, weather updates and emergency contact numbers. Residents can also call 451-TOWN to report snow related issues. Call 911 for police, fire and ambulance emergencies only. To report a power outage or downed wires, call LIPA at 800-490-0075 or 631-755-6900, or go to www.lipower.org to make a report online.

The Town will also be sending out e-mail alerts to residents who have registered on our e-mail list. If you are not on the list, you can sign up today at www.brookhaven.org. Residents can also sign up for countywide Code Red alerts at www.suffolkcountyny.gov.
