Farmingville, NY - On Saturday, April 13, 2013, Councilwoman Connie Kepert visited Eagle Scout hopeful Gregory Egan and Troop 433 at Bartlett Pond Park. "Boy Scout Troop 433 is at it again! They are again working to enhance Bartlett Pond Park with an informational Kiosk built by Eagle Scout candidate Gregory Eagan. Thank you, Greg and the whole troop," stated Councilwoman Kepert.

The informational kiosk will be located at the entrance to the park's walking path. The scouts future plans include the construction of garden beds for the park's community gardens.
