Farmingville, NY - On Saturday, May 20, Councilwoman Connie Kepert was honored to march in the annual Ridge Fire Department Memorial Day Parade down Middle Country Road to the Ridge Veteran’s Memorial where a ceremony was held. The ceremony included introductions by Chief John Miranda III, poetry readings, bugle taps, bagpipes, and the laying of wreaths. Present at the ceremony was the Ridge Fire Department, the Ridge Civic Association, several scout groups, veterans, and community members.

"It is always my great pleasure to join the Ridge community to salute those who have courageously served our country in the armed forces. Saturday's parade was a great community event," said Councilwoman Kepert.
