Farmingville, NY - On Tuesday, August 20, 2013, Councilwoman Connie Kepert joined Eleanor Smith at the Longwood Estate in Ridge. Eleanor is the direct descendant of the pre-eminent Smith family which resided on the Longwood Estate property from the 1600s until 1968. Eleanor herself was the last generation of the Smith family to live in the historic building on the property, which is now listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

During her visit, Eleanor was able to unveil the new historic marker placed at one of the entrances to the estate containing information on the historical significance of this property.

"It was an absolute pleasure to join Eleanor Smith at the Longwood Estate," said Councilwoman Kepert. "The Town of Brookhaven has a rich historic past, and this event was a wonderful way to celebrate and highlight our Town's history."
