Farmingville, NY - On December 7, Councilwoman Connie Kepert marched in the Yaphank Fire Department’s annual Christmas Parade. The parade proceeded down Main Street and ended at the Yaphank firehouse where the annual Holiday Craft Fair was taking place.

"The Yaphank Holiday Parade was great fun," stated Councilwoman Kepert. "The parade featured wonderful holiday costumes and floats. The annual celebration is a great community event involving a whole variety of community groups including the Yaphank Fire Department, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, the Longwood Marching Band, the Middle Island and Ridge Fire Departments, and many other participants."

Councilwoman Kepert also attended the Coram Civic Association's 7th Annual Holiday Festival and Christmas Tree Lighting event in Coram."The Coram Civic brings Santa right into the fire house to hear the wishes and dreams of the little ones, followed by a tree lighting ceremony at the historic Davis House," said Councilwoman Connie Kepert. "A Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays to all."
