Farmingville, NY - Recently, Supervisor Romaine (back row, right) attended the annual Davis House Christmas Tree Lighting in Coram. Also pictured are Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker (back row, left) and Coram Civic Association President Erma Gluck (back row, second from right),

The Davis House, located at 263 Middle Country Road in Coram was built in the 1750s and served as the site of the annual Town meeting in the 1800s. The house is a historic site in the Town of Brookhaven and was added to the NYS Historical Registry in September of 2000 and the National Registry in August of 2001.
