Farmingville, NY - The South Country Community Leadership Network (SCCLN), a newly formed group of local organizations dedicated to improving the quality of life for all residents of the South Country community, has organized a Free Spring front yard clean up event. Homeowners interested in participating can contact the SCCLN and, if chosen, will work alongside volunteer crew members to help beautify their homes. Volunteer assistance includes aid in removal of leaves and debris, lawn cutting, hedge trimming and plantings. To be considered for the clean up, please send a letter of request by January 1, 2015 to the following address:

SCCLN Mission Statement

"Through a community based intervention approach, help the community and its residents reach their highest potential by assisting families in crises, implementing prevention and intervention strategies for at-risk individuals and recidivists, developing its youth, and addressing underlying issues to promote a stronger and safer community."

"This initiative spearheaded by the South Country Community Leadership Network is a great opportunity for homeowners to work on improving their front yards, and in doing so, to improve entire neighborhoods,” said Councilwoman Kepert.
