Farmingville, NY - On Friday, August 8, 2014, Councilwoman Connie Kepert celebrated the 4th Annual Grown on Long Island Day at the Cornell Cooperative Extension Suffolk County Farm in Yaphank. This annual event celebrates Suffolk County's rich farming history while supporting local farms, wineries, breweries, and seafood distributors.

"The Annual Grown on Long Island county-wide farmers' market is always an extremely successful event that provides access to fresh, healthy food while supporting local farmers and stimulating the local economy," said Councilwoman Connie Kepert. "A special thanks to Joe Gergella, who is retiring from President of the Long Island Farm Bureau, for his 26 years of service and dedication to the farmers and agricultural business of Long Island.
