Farmingville, NY - On July 22, Councilwoman Connie Kepert attended St. Michaels Community Center's summer day camp program for children ages 5-13 years old in Gordon Heights. During the first part of the visit the Councilwoman read a book entitled, "Whales, the Gentle Giants" to the youngest children. Afterwards, Councilwoman Kepert spoke to the youngsters ages 8-13 about the duties and responsibilities of a Councilperson in the Town of Brookhaven. "It is always fun to interact with kids who are eager and excited to learn new things," stated Councilwoman Kepert.
