Farmingville, NY - On May 17, 2014, Councilwoman Connie Kepert stopped by Longwood High School to take part in their annual Longwood Day celebration sponsored by the Longwood PTA and Longwood School District. Longwood Day, a celebration the Councilwoman helped to promote as a civic leader, is a day for the community and the schools to come together to recognize the achievements and diversity of the Longwood community. Organizations including school clubs, scouts, civic groups, and the PTA take part in the celebration.

"Longwood Day started in 1991 when I was President of the Longwood Alliance and was one way in which the Alliance strove to strengthen and build connections among the people and organizations of the Longwood School District," said Councilwoman Connie Kepert. "As you can see it is still going strong thanks to the PTA."
