Councilwoman Connie Kepert and Jason A. Neal, Brookhaven Memorial Hospital Medical Center Community Liaison

Farmingville, NY - On April 1, Councilwoman Connie Kepert attended the Health and Wellness Fair hosted by YouthBuild Long Island, United Way of Long Island and the Boys and Girls Club of the Bellport Area. The event included information, lectures and workshops for adults and youth, including nutrition, fitness and wellness, and oral cancer and blood pressure screenings.

"The YouthBuild Health and Wellness Fair was a great opportunity for young people to learn how to stay healthy by eating healthy and by learning and practicing some simple, healthy habits," stated Councilwoman Kepert.
