Farmingville, NY - Supervisor Ed Romaine and Councilman Tim Mazzei, Town Board Liaison to the Department of Waste Management, have announced that the 7th Annual Great Brookhaven Clean Up will be held on Saturday, May 17 at various locations throughout Brookhaven Town. The event, which is co-sponsored by the Town of Brookhaven's Department of Waste Management and Keep America Beautiful, Inc., drew over 2,400 residents last year. It is part of a national effort that in 2012 drew over 2.3 million volunteers in more than 15,000 communities across America who came together to pick up litter, renew parks, and clean miles of roadway, rivers, lakes, and seashore. "The Great Brookhaven Clean Up is a great opportunity for people to make a difference in their community," said Supervisor Romaine, "I urge everyone who cares about our community and the environment to join in and help make Brookhaven a cleaner, greener and more beautiful place to live."

Councilman Tim Mazzei said, "Keeping Brookhaven clean is everyone's responsibility and there's no better way to do your part than by joining the Great Brookhaven Clean-Up. Thanks to the work of our Department of Waste Management and all the residents who will participate."

Free pickers, gloves and trash bags will be provided by the Town for the Great Brookhaven Clean Up volunteers. The supplies will be available for pick up at the Department of Waste Management's third floor office at Town Hall during business hours (9:00 am to 4:30 pm) from May 5 to May 16. The Department of Waste Management will have roadside crews pick up bags on Monday, May 19 and Tuesday, May 20.

Individuals or groups can register for the Great Brookhaven Clean Up online at www.brookhaven.org or by calling 451-TOWN (8696).
