Energy Code Compliance

Instructions

The State Energy Conservation Construction Code (Energy Code) was amended and updated in its entirety, effective October 3, 2016. The amended and updated version of the Energy Code includes specific requirements relating to construction documents, applications for building permits, approvals of applications for building permits, and inspections and tests to be performed during construction. The questions in this section of this Report relate to the town's familiarity with, and ability to enforce, these new provisions.

In this section of this Report, the term "2015 IECC" means the 2015 edition of the International Energy Conservation Code (Second Printing, May 2015), the term "2016 Energy Code Supplement" means the publication entitled "2016 Supplement to the New York State Energy Conservation Construction Code (Revised August 2016)," the term "residential building" is as defined in the 2016 Energy Code Supplement, and the term "commercial building" means any building that is not a residential building.

The term "residential building" includes: (1) detached one-family dwellings having not more than three stories above grade plane; (2) detached two-family dwellings having not more than three stories above grade plane; (3) buildings that (i) consist of three or more attached townhouse units and (ii) have not more than three stories above grade plane; (4) buildings that (i) are classified in accordance with Chapter 3 of the 2015 International Building Code (as amended) in Group R-2, R-3 or R-4 and (ii) have not more than three stories above grade plane; (5) factory manufactured homes (as defined in section 372(8) of the New York State Executive Law); and (6) mobile homes (as defined in section 372(13) of the New York State Executive Law). For the purposes of this definition of the term "residential building," the term "townhouse unit" means a single-family dwelling unit constructed in a group of three or more attached units in which each unit (i) extends from the foundation to roof and (ii) has open space on at least two sides.
