Farmingville, NY - Deputy Supervisor / Councilwoman Kathleen Walsh (pictured) was recently given a demonstration of the new ImageCast voting machines at the office of Suffolk County Legislator Tom Muratore in Selden. Testing out the new machine, Deputy Supervisor / Councilwoman Walsh said, "All residents should become familiar with the new voting machines before Election Day and I encourage everyone to exercise their right to vote on November 2nd." She also commented that the Town of Brookhaven and representatives from the Suffolk County Board of Elections will present a hands-on demonstration of the new voting machines at Town Hall in the 2nd Floor Auditorium on Wednesday, October 6 at 6:30 pm. Those residents who would like to attend must RSVP no later than Monday, October 2 by calling 631-451-6260 or by going to www.brookhaven.org.
