"We must never forget that the sacrifices made everyday by our brave men and women in uniform are what allow this great nation to be free," said Supervisor Lesko. "I honor every veteran for their service to our country and thank those soldiers currently in Iraq and Afghanistan who are fighting to preserve our liberty."

"Veterans are an example of the finest men and women that this country has ever produced," said Councilman Mazzei. "Throughout history, they have put themselves in harms way and I thank each and every one of them for their sacrifices and commitment to liberty and freedom around the world."
