Farmingville, NY - On December 5, Deputy Supervisor / Councilwoman Kathleen Walsh met at Town Hall with students from the St. Margaret of Scotland Church Religion Education Class in Selden who presented her with Christmas Tree ornaments. The ornaments, which depict the Nativity Scene, were constructed from packaged Popsicle sticks by the class as part of their holiday project. They are to be distributed to patients at the Northport Veterans Hospital. Pictured are students AJ and Sara LaFond presenting one of the home-made ornaments to Deputy Supervisor / Councilwoman Kathleen Walsh.
