Town of Brookhaven and Three Village Historical Society to Host History Walk at West Meadow Beach in Stony Brook
posted on 7/12/2016 2:36:00 PM

Farmingville, NY – On Saturday, July 16, Town of Brookhaven Historian Barbara M. Russell and Three Village Historical Society’s Historian Beverly C. Tyler will conduct a History Walk in conjunction with Gallery North’s 12th Annual Joseph Reboli Wet Paint Festival at West Meadow Beach in Stony Brook. The walk will leave from the Pavilion at West Meadow Beach, promptly at 10:30 am. No pre-registration is required and the tour is free. This is a walking tour, comfortable shoes or sandals are recommended. The History Walk will conclude at the Gamecock Cottage where a display of Native American artifacts and other historical materials will be open to the public until 1:30 pm.