Farmingville, NY – Spring is in full swing at the Holtsville Ecology Site. Superintendent of Highways Daniel P. Losquadro has announced upcoming dates for both pee-wee and adult gardening classes which will be hosted by the Brookhaven Highway Department beginning in April.

"In addition to being a great value, these classes are a fun and educational way to welcome spring," said Losquadro. "Children will learn about the environment, animals and plants through crafts and stories, while adult participants will learn how to sow vegetable seeds and start plants through propagation."

Both classes require a 15-student minimum by March 28; cost is $50 for a six-week session. The adult horticulture classes will be held from 10 a.m. until noon on Wednesday, April 6, 13 and 20, and May 4, 11, and 18. Participants in the pee-wee gardening classes, which are for children ages three to five, can choose from two six-week sessions: Tuesday, April 5, 12 and 19, and May 3, 10 and 17, or Friday, April 8, 15 and 22, and May 6, 13 and 20. Available times are 9:30 a.m. – 10:30 a.m., 10:45 a.m. – 11:45 a.m. or 1 p.m. – 2 p.m.

Registration can be completed in person at the Holtsville Ecology Site, located at 249 Buckley Rd. in Holtsville, by phone or by mail. Checks should be made payable to the Brookhaven Highway Department. For more information, call 631-758-9664, x. 10.
