Farmingville, NY – On December 11, Councilwoman Connie Kepert visited with the Wolf Scouts of Cub Scout Pack 79 of Yaphank. The scouts interviewed the Councilwoman as part of their adventures to earn their Participatory Citizenship badge. They asked questions such as: “What changes have there been to the community?” and “What do you think we can do to make a positive change in our communities?”

“It was my distinct pleasure to speak with the scouts of Troop 79 in Yaphank,” stated Councilwoman Kepert. “The boys asked a lot of great questions about community participation and Town government. I look forward to watching these scouts grow and continue to work toward improving our communities for the better.”
