

Daniel P. Losquadro
Superintendent of Highways presents the unveiling of the

Little Free Library

at the

Holtsville Ecology Center & Animal Preserve

featuring

Cindy Sommer
Local Children's Book Author

Please join us for this FREE event, as we officially unveil the Little Free Library book exchange at the Holtsville Ecology Center. There are currently 40,000 Little Free Library book exchanges located around the country. Ours was built and donated by a future Eagle Scout. Local children's book author Cindy Sommer will be on hand to read her book, "Saving Kate's Flowers," which she will donate to the Little Free Library, and lead a craft with participants.

Friday, Nov. 4, 2016
1 pm - 2 pm
Holtsville Ecology Site
249 Buckley Rd., Holtsville, NY 11742

Please call 631.758.9664 to reserve your spot today.

Following the program, Cindy Sommer will be autographing and selling copies of "Saving Kate's Flowers." Ten percent of the proceeds from event sales will go to the Brookhaven Wildlife Center, Inc., which provides for the care and feed of the more than 100 animals residing at the Holtsville Ecology Site & Animal Preserve.