A MESSAGE FROM THE COUNCILMAN

Dear Friends,

I hope this newsletter finds you and your family well. As we begin the start of the school year, many of us may be dealing with stress and uncertainty of what to expect. Please know that my office is here to help in anyway we can, just let us know.

As your Councilman, it is important to me that I advocate on the issues that are impacting you and your family. I appreciate all of the kind words and support given to myself and my staff, as we all try to navigate through these past few months. I hope you will enjoy a few highlights from the last few weeks featured in this newsletter.

As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me directly at my office at 631-451-6968. You can also follow us on facebook @CouncilmanMichaelALoguercioJr. for even more information.

Sincerely,

Bellport

Thank you once again to the Bellport Chamber of Commerce for working hard to continue to provide support to local business owners within the community. This event was great opportunity for folks to network and share ideas with each other.

Hauppauge

Very happy to show our appreciation to a vital partner that assists us in providing meals to folks in our communities. Long Island Cares has been a great resource during these difficult and challenging months. Thank you to all the dedicated folks who make a huge difference in so many peoples lives. We look forward to continuing to work with you all.

Gordon Heights

Great meeting with the Greater Gordon Heights Chamber of Commerce. The chambers are always a great resource for our community and businesses. I look forward to continuing to work together to advocate and support the needs of all of our business owners.

Brookhaven

Congratulations to Eagle Scout Andy Pandaliano, on the completion of his project of an all access ramp at the CEED Center located in Brookhaven Hamlet. This non-profit nature center, provides the community with educational experiences for all ages. His hard work in completing this ramp, allows for all visitors to stop by and enjoy.
