Farmingville, NY – On March 11, Councilwoman Jane Bonner marched in the 68th annual Rocky Point St. Patrick's Day Parade, hosted by the Friends of St. Patrick. The parade route traveled on Route 25A from Miller Place to Rocky Point and featured floats from local organizations, fire departments, local school bands, scout troops and Irish pipe bands.

Councilwoman Bonner said, "Marching in the Rocky Point St. Patrick's Day parade is something I look forward to every year. The weather was perfect and there was a big crowd of friendly and familiar faces enjoying this great North Shore tradition."
