Farmingville, NY – On November 29, Councilwoman Valerie M. Cartright was on hand to celebrate the grand opening and open house at the Village Coffee Market in Stony Brook Village. The event was attended by patrons and representatives of the North Brookhaven and Three Village Chambers of Commerce. The boutique store is a unique retail coffee market that offers all things coffee and beyond. Customers can mix and match over 180 flavors for their K cups or single cup brewers to create their own custom box of favorite flavors to take home. The market will also feature “Take the Cakes” classic pancake mixes from the Chicago Pancake House, as well as a gluten free products, coffee beans, ground coffee, espresso, gourmet cookies, a variety of gift baskets, coffee brewers, coffee mugs, sugar and creamer sets and much more.

Councilwoman Cartright said, “Since their opening, Village Coffee Market has received rave reviews. Their friendly staff, good music and coffee selection are a winning combination. It’s a good place to start holiday shopping. I’m happy to welcome them to our community.”

Village Coffee Market is located in the Harbor Crescent section of Stony Brook Village, next to the Stony Brook Post Office. They are open Monday through Saturday from 10 am to 6 pm and Sunday from 12 pm to 5 pm.
