Farmingville, NY – On September 18, Councilwoman Jane Bonner (right) was joined by State Senator Ken LaValle (left) to celebrate the 30th Anniversary of the Leisure Glen adult community in Ridge. The event was held in the Leisure Glen clubhouse and organized by the Leisure Glen Social Club president Charlie Mojica and event chairpersons Sandi Bernstein and Andy Salzman. Leisure Glen is a gated community created especially for Adults 55 + and is self managed by a Home Owners Association and seven member Board of Directors. “I always enjoy spending time with the folks at Leisure Glen,” said Councilwoman Bonner. “This is a very tight knit group that cares a great deal about the community inside and outside their front gate. I congratulate the residents on their 30th anniversary and thank them for helping to make Brookhaven Town a better place to live.”
