Farmingville, NY - On May 30, Councilwoman Jane Bonner (back row, center) attended the Court of Honor ceremony for Kenneth Schick and Kieran Maroney from Boy Scout Troop 244 in Rocky Point. Kenneth and Kieran attained the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest rank in the Boy Scouts of America. Pictured are Kieran Maroney (third from left), Legislator Sarah Anker (fifth from left), Scoutmaster Kathy Freund, Councilwoman Bonner, Kenneth Schick (second from right) and the new Eagle Scouts' families. The event was held at the Rocky Point High School.

For Kenneth's Eagle project, he built a platform in the Rocky Point High School auditorium for the light and sound boards. The project has helped the efficiency of the tech crew and has improved the appearance of the auditorium. Kieran's Eagle project was an informational kiosk at the Rolling Oaks golf course. This kiosk educates golfers about the dangers of heart attacks while golfing and teaches the steps to ensure a safe golfing experience.

"Leadership, hard work, and dedication to the community are what it means to be an Eagle Scout," said Councilwoman Bonner. "I commend Kenneth and Kiernan for their achievement. They are wonderful examples for younger Scouts and their peers to follow."
