Farmingville, NY - On May 2, Supervisor Ed Romaine (left) and Councilwoman Jane Bonner (right) attended Mount Sinai Fire Department's Annual Installation Dinner at Majestic Gardens in Rocky Point to honor the company's members for their service to the Mount Sinai community. Certificates of Congratulations from the Town Board were presented to the 2014 Members of the Year, members with Year of Service Milestones and outgoing officers. Former Town Councilman Gene Gerrard (middle) was presented with a proclamation for his 50 years of dedicated service to the department.

Supervisor Romaine said, "I commend the members of the Mount Sinai Fire Department who give so much of their time to community service. I especially want to congratulate and thank former Councilman Gene Gerrard for his many years of service to the Mount Sinai community and the Town of Brookhaven."

"I thank the members of the Mount Sinai Fire Department for their years of faithful service to the community," said Councilwoman Jane Bonner. "These dedicated fire fighters put their lives on the line every day and I thank them for the sacrifices they make to keep us safe."
