Farmingville, NY - On January 19, Councilwoman Jane Bonner joined members of the North Brookhaven Chamber of Commerce to swear in their new Officers and Board Members. The swearing in, which was part of the chamber's annual Holiday Party, took place at Windows on the Lake in Ronkonkoma.

"It's always a pleasure to attend the chamber's Holiday Party and welcome the new officers," said Councilwoman Bonner. "Their membership does a great job promoting local businesses and serving the North Shore communities. I support their efforts and look forward to working with them during the new year."
